

More Umpires Urgently Needed For Little League

More volunteers for umpires for Glades Youth Baseball are urgently needed, vice-president Ben McGee announced Wednesday.

Interested fathers and friends are asked to report to the Little League Park Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Little League officers were elected at the meeting held Tuesday night at the City Park Shelter. Norman Bowen was elected president; Mrs. Jane Evans, first vice-president; Ben McGee, second vice-president; Mrs. James Bryan, secretary and treasurer.

The new president was asked to appoint a committee to draw up by-laws for the league.

New Manager Here For Grant Store

James E. Walsh came to Belle Glade this week to assume management of the W. T. Grant Store here, replacing Herbert E. Vater who leaves to manage the West Hollywood store.

Mr. Walsh comes from a year's service with the Grant store in Cocoa, preceded by 15 years with the Murphy Company chain. His wife and three children will be moving here, as soon as housing is arranged.

"Housing Remains Critical Here," L. Price Says

"What can we do to stir folks up?" L. Price, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, hounded again this week. Folks are streaming into our city and can't find places to live, he said. From last Friday noon through Monday night of this week sixteen families were scouting the area with little success in finding homes. "We were able to place only two of the sixteen," Price said.

In addition to this, letters come in daily requesting housing. "We have just received three from Louisiana wanting homes in three, two from Indiana and three from Georgia. A bus driver who could not find housing here must have his wife drive over from Cleveland, eleven o'clock each night to pick him up and bring him back by nine the next morning, L. L. reported.

Aug. 7th Date Of Release For Glades Guardsmen

Company Commander Lieut. Desse O. Campbell has received official notification that the 149th Quartermaster Company (Petroleum Depot), will be officially mustered out of the regular service, returned to their reserve status and moved to its home station in West Palm Beach.

Glades Guardsmen are members of that organization.

Word has already been passed on that some celebration and welcoming function will be undertaken in the Glades. A preliminary meeting has been scheduled for June 28th between the Adjutant General's department and Glades officials to formulate plans.

Major Emmet Roberts reports that the local boys' company has established an enviable reputation at Fort Lee for efficiency and spirit of its members. This is of particular interest because reports have come down of the unrest and chronic grumblings of units from other areas of the country.

The official statement says: "Walk on active duty these men completed a rigorous phase of training which further intensified their sense of readiness."

In the performance of their duty, they have contributed to the safety of the country, and therefore merit the honor and respect of those they have served... the American people.

"Quality, while it has increased vastly during the past decade in Florida, is of great importance to the Florida beef industry" the speaker pointed out. "Florida has the need for more beef for its own consumption; it imports the majority of its beef for use - and has the feed available," he said.

"Folks in the west advertise 'Eastern beef' and we advertise 'Western beef,' Florida can produce as good meat as any area in the country, and we can, and do, produce 1,000 steers at one year of age, and the best beef industry of Florida must apply to meet the need for beef production as can

Jaycees

"Mamma Rabbit" Expected To Spur Membership Drive

At their regular weekly meeting, the Belle Glade Jaycees discussed the ways and means of their on-coming membership drive.

The idea for this membership drive was derived from a Jaycee magazine, "Membership Growth Idea Book," that is distributed to all the local clubs throughout the area by the National Jaycee Headquarters.

The local Jaycees have acquired an expectant rabbit to be used to motivate their present membership drive.

The rabbit will be presented to the first Jaycee Thursday night at the meeting which will be held at the Country Club. He will retain possession of the rabbit until he signs up a new member. The rabbit will then be given to the first Jaycee on a list made up by the president, George Riddle, and the secretary-treasurer, Bill Burke, which will be the only two people that will know "who is next."

The cycle will continue until the rabbit has completed its necessary course of nature. The lucky Jaycee in possession of the rabbit at this precious moment (under the proud owner of the entire brood (mother and all).

The guest for their meeting Thursday night will be Jerry Filfield, Sales Representative of Fishbake and Associates, Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Filfield will present a 15 minute film concerning the safety of seatbelts. He then will discuss his company's seatbelt program. The Jaycees are planning a seatbelt clinic in early September. This is planned to be held in conjunction with a vehicle safety check.

Plans were made to attend the Play Day at the State Fair on June 14th at the Belle Glade Presentation Station. A flag presentation and dedication ceremony will take place at 10:00 a.m.

The public is invited to attend this function. The Jaycees feel that this short program should prove to be time well spent. It should be of particular interest to the young people in our community.

"Life Today A Challenge Unequalled In History," Dickinson Tells Seniors

"Your character will have more to do with your future happiness and contentment to mankind than anything else," Senator Fred O. Dickinson, Jr., told the 81 graduates of Belle Glade High School at Commencement Exercises held last Thursday evening in the High School auditorium.

Conspicuously the class of the completion of their high school course, and extending praise to the School Board, Faculty and parents for the vital role they played in making this possible, Senator Dickinson continued with a thought provoking message.

"This is a great milestone in your life. Throughout your greatest journey should be, 'What about my future in the Space Age?' I live in an age of constant change. I live in an age of war, confusion and despair. My day has come, but what a day it is - the atom and hydrogen bomb, the guided missile, the airplane flying faster than the speed of sound. Hardly a month can pass without the latest in electronic inventions being obsolete. I live in an age when at least two nations on this earth, on United States and Russia, are capable of abolishing each other, and all the rest of the world through the use of nuclear warfare devices and materials. Space in my day offers no material security. Propaganda is cheap and plentiful, and apparently the Russians and Communists are outdoing my nation in this field. Yes, this is a time when I ask, 'What about my future?'

YOU LIVE IN A DIFFICULT TIME

I would be less than truthful to you this evening if I did not admit that you live in a difficult and changing time. Life is not as simple as it once was because today even the complications of city problems far transcend many which used to be state and national. Society

LIFE A CHALLENGE BEFORE UNEQUALLED

Let me assure you in this Space Age, regardless of the scientific and engineering advances which are about us, the very same elements of fear that prevail today have been here through the centuries.

Furthermore, every worthwhile development in civilization has come in times of struggle and adversity. The teaching of the Christian religion, the birth of this great nation and there are many other examples far too numerous to mention to you.

Life, my young friends, is filled with a challenge today that has no equal in all world before.

"Out Of Belle Glade Proper" Denied To Be Major Problem

Despite the fact that the "News Release" signed by the Southwestern Bell Beach County Public Hospital Board, says patients "out of Belle Glade proper" would be "another major problem" the Chairman and another Board member deny this.

Both deny any collusion to allow "citizens" to vote one time and "freeloaders" another; both deny knowledge of any easier road to accreditation in a joint hospital; both seem to think that new taxes are necessary for either hospital.

Both deny any knowledge of the "release" until it had been publicized. Both welcome expressions of opinion by individuals or groups, without criticism.

The Chairman had agreed.

Civilians Hear Director Of Migrant Ministry

Belle Glade Civilians heard a very interesting talk by Mr. Wilbur Rittenhouse, Director of the Christian Ministry to Migrants, at their weekly meeting, Ray's Smokehouse on Thursday, May 24.

Mr. Rittenhouse informed the Civilians of the Ministry's activities and goals. He listed a child care center, a church youth fellowship, a girl's club, an archery club, and close cooperation with the Public Health Department as some of the Christian Ministry to Migrants' activities in Belle Glade.

Mr. Rittenhouse said that the primary goal is to have each migrant family to become whole and stable members of the community of their choice.

In the spirit of the Civitan Motto "Builders of Good Citizenship," President Edward F. Allen presented Mr. Rittenhouse with a check for one hundred dollars as a civilian donation to the local work of the Christian Ministry to Migrants.

Mr. Rittenhouse was introduced by Club Treasurer, Spotsy Burr.

The Flag Code

(The fifth and last in a series on "The Flag Code," sponsored by the Lake Okechobee Chapter of Demolay, in an effort to arouse more patriotism in the community.)

Sec. 6. That when the national anthem is played and the flag is not displayed, all present should stand and face toward the music. Those in uniform should salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining this position until the last note. All others should stand at attention, men removing headress. When the flag is displayed, all present should face the flag and salute.

"I Pledge Allegiance to the Flag"

Sec. 7. That the pledge of allegiance to the flag, of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all," be rendered by standing with the right hand over the heart. However, civilians will always show full respect to the flag when the pledge is given by merely standing at attention, men removing the head dress. Person in uniform shall render the military salute. (As amended by PL336, 83rd Congress approved June 14, 1954.)

Sec. 8. Any rule or custom pertaining to the display of the flag of the United States of America, set forth therein, may be altered, modified, or repeated, or additional rules with respect thereto may be prescribed, by the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, whenever, he deems it to be appropriate or desirable; and any such alteration or additional rule shall be set forth in a proclamation.

Approved, December 22, 1942.

DESCRIPTION OF THE FLAG

The flag of the United States of America has 13 horizontal stripes, 7 red and 6 white — the red and white stripes alternating and a union which consists of white stars of five points on a blue field placed in the upper quarter next the staff and extending to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe from the top.

The union of the flag now contains 50 stars, each star with one point upward. The number of stars is the same as the number of States in the Union. On the admission of a State into the Union a star is added to the union of the flag, and such an addition is effective on the 4th day of July next succeeding the admission of the State. The 50 star flag became the official flag of the United States of America on July 4, 1960, following the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union on August 21, 1959. The position of the stars in the union shall be as indicated on the attachment to the Executive Order 10834 of President Eisenhower, August 21, 1959. That attachment prescribes the proportions of the flag which are as follows:

Ratio (width) of flag	1.
Fly (length) of Flag	1.9
Holst (width) of Union	.5385 (7/13)
Fly (length) of Union	.76
Width of each Stripe	.0769 (1/13)
Diameter of Star	.0616

Uncle Dan from Doolie Says:

Dear Mister Editor:
 I see by the papers where Bobby Kennedy is claiming the Democrats is gaining in Vermont. It could be the game warden has caught a couple of them hiding in the brush up there. And I was reading a piece where 17 per cent of all the people born in Georgia move out of the state after a while. I reckon they got converted to the Republican party and has to run for their lives.

They ain't nothing in this world that splits folks up like the Republican party and has to run for their lives. When a tax collector takes a bribe he gets thrown in jail, but a public office holder calls it a campaign contribution and gets elected for another term.

I was reading here a while back where some woman from South Carolina celebrated her 104th birthday. She told the newspaper folks she loved everybody, even Republicans. I know a heap of Democrats that would rather die at 64 as to lose Republicans at 104-and viser vice.

I recollect about a feller we used to have living out here. He was a great Republican, but he have much use for anybody if they wasn't a Republican. He wouldn't even speak to a Democrat. He'd go to his funeral, but he didn't want nothing to do with him while he was living.

We was talking about these things at the country store Saturday night and the feller was agreed that common sense in this country has gone in orbit and horse sense is disappearing with the horses. Ed Doolie was even talking orbit stuff these days. Ed says she says she feels "go" and some mornings she complains she is feeling "stazy."

Clem Webster said he was reading where some feller in Hollywood is fixing to manufacture wimmen's clothes out of cellophane. All the fellers was in favor of it, natural, and Zeke Grubb claimed it would fit in real good with the Age of Television. That being the one in which we was living.

I don't know what the world is coming to no more. Sometimes I think the people in this country has grown tall but not up. How else can you figger it?

Cancer Nursing Class

At U of Fla. June 17-23
 A cancer nursing institute, based on the principle of nursing applied to the care of the cancer patient, has been scheduled for June 17-23 at the University of Florida's Hillis Miller Health Center.

It is being offered by the College of Nursing and the Florida Institute for Continuing University Studies in cooperation with the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society.

Lois N. Knowles, assistant dean of the College of Nursing, said the focus of the institute will be upon learning more about the functions of the nurse in the care of the cancer patient.

"The nurses," Dean Knowles explained, "will have opportunities to increase their knowledge and skill in identifying patient problems, discussing and carrying out measures to help solve such problems, and evaluating the result of the nursing process on the patient for future use in improving her practice."

During the seven-day study session, staff physicians and nurses at the Health Center will deliver lectures on the recent progress in cancer research, use of medications (research drugs), nurses responsibility in medical therapy, the meaning of terminal cancer to the patient and his family, the current surgical aspects in the treatment of cancer, radioactive isotopes in the detection and treatment of cancer, and radiation therapy in the treatment of cancer.

The role of the American Cancer Society in education, research and service also will be discussed.

The Written Guarantee

Every product is only as good as the manufacturer who made it and the guarantee the company places upon it. It is generally understood today that a product must be good if it is to be accepted by the consumer.

If you buy a new car and some defect is found, you just simply return it to the company and they will usually stand behind it. The same is true with most home appliances that we have come to depend upon so much for our comfort.

We have no trouble getting everyone to accept guarantee system in all of these things of a material value. I believe this is sensible and right. I believe a company should stand behind its products, or go out of business and let a good company produce a good product and stand behind it.

There is something far more important than these material things. Someone is ready to ask what could be more important than the things mentioned above? The answer is the Soul of Man. That, my friend, is immortal; yet we usually accept any theory in religion without question. Friends, our souls are at stake. Will you study the manufacturer's guarantee—the Bible—carefully? In the Bible every clause, Almighty God will stand behind His product, but he sure that someone doesn't sell you something in religion that isn't backed by GOD'S GUARANTEE. Gal. 1:8-9.

Moves Expand Lutheran Hour Broadcast In Africa

Establishment of radio production facilities in Nigeria, West Africa, is being considered by the Missionary Board of the Lutheran Synodical Conference.

The recording studio would be used primarily to produce Lutheran Hour programs for West Africa.

The Rev. C. Thomas Spier, Jr., Lutheran Hour director of broadcasting, recently returned from a survey of African opportunities, also announced that negotiations have been completed for the introduction of Lutheran Hour programs in eight additional languages on the continent. They are Amharic, Betswana, Cimbucuba, Malaygaya, Shona, Zulu, Sesotho, and Cinyanja.

In another move to expand radio broadcasting in Nigeria to complement the Board's mission work, the Rev. Paul Volz, Lutheran Hour branch office manager in Nigeria, will be released from his other missionary duties to become full-time director of mass media. He will prepare program, educational, and sermonic materials and reorganize the Ibo and Efik language work.

He also will explore the possibility of obtaining a studio site in the Enugu area. Meanwhile an effort is being made to secure a qualified radio engineer in the United States to assist in the preparation of program materials and ultimately to develop a recording studio. Present plans indicate that the Missionary Board will own and manage the program production studio while the Lutheran Laymen's League will provide necessary direction in programming and other radio work.

Ye shall receive power, that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. (Acts 1:8)

George B. Duncan went to visit his friend at a village in the early days of World War II. The village was an old-fashioned stone building. Mr. Duncan was amazed to find that the house had been renovated. Everything was gleaming with chrome plate. There were such things as an electric stove, electric heaters, electric lights, and electric iron.

Mr. Duncan was surprised, therefore, to see the lady of the house using a dirty oil stove and oil lamps. The visitor observed Duncan's astonishment and said: "George, don't look so astonished. Don't you know we have a war on? We have everything except the electric power."

Without the Holy Spirit we are powerless. But He has come to empower us for service to God. His power is unlimited, and it will more than make up for our weakness. We can have as much of it as we need; for that power is a divine person, and that person dwells with us.

PRAY: Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast given the Holy Spirit to us that our life and work may be effective. Help us to move forward in the faith that "all things are possible to him that believeth." For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Robert Taylor of the C & SF Division, U.S. Forest Service, problems and activities of this county water control project provided by federal-state and owner cooperation.

Mr. James Russell, Business and Financial Editor of the Miami Herald, discussed the relation of finance to successful agricultural production of today.

Don Martin, Asst. Vice President of the ACL Railroad, "made no appeal for hand-outs, only fair treatment" for this important link in America's transportation system. Archaic laws, regulations, controls and interference with normal business judgment do not help railroads to exceed about 2 percent return on investment the audience was told.

Bob Smith, a CPA of Tampa, whose firm had made an extensive study of taxation, at the local level, for the County advocated change in home-stead exemption, and "some system of taxation" other than ad valorem.

"Home study, by home-folks for home-folks has always paid big dividends," he said.

A high-point of the meeting was the information given by Mr. Vaughn that Washington reports by telephone just previously had indicated early action on the sugar bill, so that it may become effective by July 1.

Sugar production was traced historically from its eastern origin to Florida, and to date, with an optimistic outlook for Glades growers.

Attractive You
BY ALBERTA CULVER

Even a plain woman will be attractive if everything about her is fresh and fragrant. Clear, well-cared-for skin; shining hair; hands that are scrupulously manicured; and immaculate clothes provide an aura of class that points up her femininity.

With skillful use of today's modern make-up products, you can make yourself look ten years younger and twice as beautiful. Cosmetics can minimize facial faults, emphasize your best features and help you present your best face to the world.

Make it a habit to keep a bottle of hand lotion and skin conditioner, such as Dermal Fresh, on a shelf near the kitchen sink and the bathroom. Use it every time you have had your hands in water.

Daytime make-up should be more subtle than evening make-up. Strive for a natural effect in the daytime, with just a touch of eye shadow and mascara, and a faint hint of rouge.

Regular shampooing, massage and brushing off the best remedies for most ordinary hair problems. Any hair beautifying must start with a healthy scalp and healthy hair. Give special attention to the care of your hair before you get a new permanent or change its color.

Cold water, splashed on the face after washing, can be a big help to those with "problem" skin. The stimulation of regular splashing with cold water can work wonders for skin texture and complexion.

To protect your fingernails, never file them to a point which has no protection and will break sooner or later. The use of nail polish should complement its base. If the base is square, shape the nail end square.

You'll find that tweezing your eyebrows will be easier and less painful if you apply a small amount of cold cream over the brows first.

US Eng. Have Influenced Fla. Economy Over 117 Years - Life Of Statehood

The nation's and Florida's oldest and largest construction agency - the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers - will celebrate its 117th anniversary on June 16. Fanfare will be at a minimum, but many city, county and federal buildings will display the Corps' Engineer's flag - a white castle against a brilliant red background - as a silent tribute to the giant Army organization.

The Continental Congress on June 16, 1775 decreed that there should be a Chief Engineer of the Army. The following day, Richard Gridley, who was to become the first wounded in the Battle of Bunker Hill after he had worked all night fortifying the Hill. He was appointed to the post, nevertheless, and distinguished himself as the first leader of the Army Corps of Engineers.

Throughout the Revolutionary War, during the war of 1812, the Civil War, World War I, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, the Corps of Engineers has won the plaudits of the nation and the world for its construction efforts. Building fortifications, and generally paving the way for advancing ground troops while destroying roads and bridges to impede the progress of the enemy is the job assigned to the Corps of Engineers in times of war.

In peacetime the Corps' function is two-fold - to handle the military construction needs of the Army and Air Force and to design and construct flood control, navigation and similar civil works.

The first Corps of Engineers office was established in Florida in 1845 the same year this state was admitted to the union. And the Corps has maintained a Florida headquarters continuously for the past 117 years.

From the first office in Key West to the present location in Jacksonville, the Corps has been a giant force in the growth and progress of Florida.

Colonel J. V. Solihub, district engineer, has personnel numbering about 1,000 stationed at numerous points throughout Florida. And the Army Engineers accomplish their construction mission through use of private construction firms, putting the work out on bids.

Dollar volume workload of the Jacksonville District during the past 12 months totaled about $60 million, according to Colonel Solihub. Add to this the $7 million annual payroll of the Jacksonville District office and the army of construction workers whose livelihood comes indirectly from the Army Engineers work, and you begin to realize the impact of the Army Engineers on the state.

Florida Counties Get $192,500 This Year From Racing Taxes. State Comptroller Ray E. Green reported today that the 67 counties will receive an additional check this month of $480,000 from race track taxes.

Green said the total sent to each county to date for the current fiscal year is $7,500 more per county than the counties received for the corresponding period during the previous fiscal year.

This month's check will bring the total received by each county since July 1, 1961, to $192,500.

Final distribution of race track funds for the 1961-62 fiscal year will be June 30, he said.

Summer Educational Enrichment Program Opens June 15 At Lake Shore High School

He admonished the graduates to practice the principles of democracy, for the basic strength of our democracy is freedom of opportunity. Each graduate must face up to the problems of America.

Mr. Sayles urged the graduates to continue their education through reading and study. He further urged them to take inventory of self-aptitudes, achievement and interest and select the career that they would be willing to work for.

The students were reminded that there is to be the era of the highly educated man. It is not enough to be educated - one must be religious. Love, family life, and power to achieve inner peace should be striven for as we cannot find happiness alone.

Original citations were delivered by the Salutatorian, Blanche Byron and the Valedictorian, Clementine Pruitt. Byron spoke on the subject, "What Life Holds for the Ambitious Man." Pruitt's topic was "Accepting the Challenge."

Music was provided by the music department. The Girls Ensemble rendered "Autumn Rain," by Jepperson and the Chorus sang "Red Wing" by Chatterbox-Mills. The band provided music for the procession as well as two other numbers.

Superintendent Howell L. Watkins was on hand to present diplomas to fifty-four graduates.

Baccalaureate was held Sunday afternoon, June 10, at 4:00 p. m. in the gym. Reverend O. D. Williams delivered the sermon and Reverend J. B. Adams gave the invocation. Selections were given by both the band and chorus.

St. Augustine's Spanish Treasury Building is just one of numerous attractions offered in Northeast Florida's 15 Crown counties. The ancient City is another reason Governor Farris Bryant and the Florida Development Commission are urging Floridians to vacation in their own state this summer.

"Life Today A Challenge Unequaled In History," Dickinson Tells Seniors

history. Science has opened the door. The ease of modern living in this age of "Gadgets" gives all of us more opportunity. Your ability to meet the future successfully is attested by your presence here tonight.

ESSENTIAL FOR HAPPINESS THE SAME
The same things necessary for you to live a fruitful and happy life have not changed. Your future is up to you. Times have changed — life is more complex; society is more vulnerable to the whims and ideas of false leaders. It is, therefore, incumbent upon each of you to get your course and code of living NOW. Some of you will go on to higher education and others of you will immediately face the world of open competition. But this I know — all of you must decide NOW what type of life you wish to live.

Of all the great contributions of George Washington, none is more important than his "Code of Living" which he wrote as a young man and lived by the rest of his life. Among the MUSTS be placed — "Respect for your Parents, Yourself, and your Fellow Man" is essential. Love of country and friends — and God — as necessary. Personal habits of cleanliness and conduct becoming to a man of pride and ambition were his rules. Devotion to principle and loyalty to country spelled out his makeup. Lastly, and most important of all, was his deep-seated recognition of God and his power. With all the education possible — with all the riches of a Roman King — with all the luxuries of Napoleon at his Pinnacle — with all the enjoyment and wealth of worldly adventure, nothing, absolutely nothing, is as important as your character. I make but one promise to each of you tonight: if you will develop a code, consistent with clean, decent, honorable living, your future, regardless of your social, business or family achievement, will be happy and successful. Without such a code, happiness, and success will never be yours.

AMERICA BLESSED
Never in the history of civilization have people been blessed with such as we who are here in America. You know nothing of fear, oppression or second class citizenship, and this is as it should be. The freedoms which are yours because you are Americans are not enjoyed by any other people anywhere in the world. Your loyalty to the basic concepts of American freedom, to the ideals of the forefathers of this nation, will never be yours.

Now...Test drive the NEW JEEP TORNAO-OHC ENGINE

You'll be amazed at its performance!

BIRTH OF A CHAMPION! Today, after years of research, development and testing, Willys Motors proudly presents the "Jeep Tornado-OHC" - America's first overhead camshaft engine designed for commercial vehicles.

WHAT IS AN OHC ENGINE? In a pushrod engine the valves are on top—the camshaft, which operates them, is at the bottom. It's an awkward situation like playing the piano sitting on the floor—you have to stretch up and over to hit the keys. Giving the Tornado-OHC engine overhead cam—which is what the initials OHC stand for—is like giving the pianist a chair. You get much better performance.

LOADED OHC-JEEP VEHICLE PULLS LIKE IT'S EMPTY! 33% more power—and, more important, very high torque at very low engine speeds give the Tornado-OHC engine better acceleration and much longer life.

EASY COING—ON GAS AND MAINTENANCE! Higher thermal efficiency means up to 25% better gas economy. Fewer moving parts mean simpler, less frequent, less expensive maintenance.

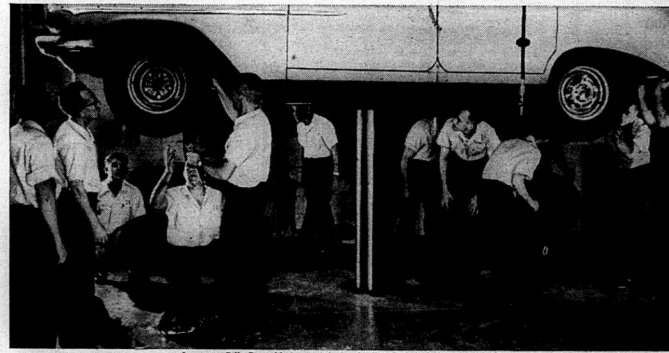

COMING IN AND TEST DRIVE THE TORNAO-OHC ENGINE—now available in "Jeep" 7-1/2-ton, 4-wheel drive Utility Wagons, 2WD Station Wagons and Panel Deliveries. But be warned—with its exciting performance you'll probably want to take it home with you!

Instructor Billy Reynolds (turning front wheel) and Shell dealers check out a car at one of Shell's 123 training centers.

Shell instructor Billy Reynolds offers 10 clues that may help you spot trouble before it starts

Billy Reynolds

OVER 12,000 Shell dealers go to Shell training centers every year. There, they learn how to spot trouble quickly.

Here are 10 trouble signals that Billy Reynolds, one of Shell's chief instructors, always stresses. If you notice any of them in your car, tell your Shell dealer. His advice might head off a big repair bill later on.

- 1. Mushy brakes. When your car is standing still, push the brake pedal down with a firm, steady pressure. If it feels soft and sinks to the floor, you've got trouble that should be fixed right away.
- 2. Wandering wheels. If your front tires show more wear on one side of the tread than the other, your wheel alignment is probably at fault. Out-of-line wheels can increase tire wear up to 50 percent.
- 3. Jiggly front end. Shove down hard on either bumper with your foot. If the car bobs up and down for a long time before coming to a rest, ask your Shell dealer to check your shock absorbers.
- 4. Decrepit tail pipe. If your muffler or tail pipe is rusted through in spots, it's a good idea to replace it.
- 5. "Bloated" radiator hoses. Inspect all of the rubber hoses that interconnect your cooling system. If they're cracked or swollen, they can fail at any time and cause your engine to overheat.

6. Marred windshield. If your windshield is scarred or streaked, it's probably due to faulty windshield wipers. Have your Shell dealer check and replace them if necessary.

7. Strange noises. Listen for any odd noises from your car. They can be warnings of trouble on the way.

8. Under-the-hood clues. You can learn a lot by looking at your engine. Watch for oil, fuel and water leaks. Also, loose wires and worn insulation.

9. Sluggish battery. If your engine turns over more slowly than usual when you start up, a weak battery is probably the trouble. But it could be something else. Better check it.

10. Oil-streaked sidewalls. Check the sides of your tires you seldom see—the sides facing in. Look for signs of leaking fluid on the tire walls. Could be a leaking brake cylinder, or faulty oil seals on the rear wheels. Both can be serious.

Any trained Shell dealer knows many trouble signals besides these. Take advantage of his training. And one last tip: when you've got trouble in top condition, keep it filled with today's Super Shell—for top performance all year long.
